WELCOMED HOME BY THOUSANDS

RECEPTION GIVEN SENATOR FAIRBANKS

Citizens of Indianapolis Greet Their Honored Townsman With Cheers and Music—Escorted Home Through Crowds.

Indianapolis, June 25.—Senator Fairbanks reached his home city at 7:30 to night, the approach of the train bearing his party being announced by hundreds of steam whistles and by the ringing of bells. When the train stopped 10,000 people cheerd and waved a welcome. In front were several hundred prominent residents of the city, representing all political parties and accompanied by the governor of the state and mayor of Indianapolis. The party passed through a shouting throng to carriages in waiting behind an escort of 500 members of the Marion club.

Governor Durbin, Senator Beveridge and Mayor Holtman occupied the carriage with the senator, while Mrs. Fairbanks and other ladies of the party and Chairman Cortelyou and other distinguished members of the party occupied carriages in the procession.

The music of the bands was drowned in the great wave of welcome that greeted Fairbanks as the procession passed through the crowded streets to the senator's home. The senator bowed his acknowledgments continually. The warmth of the welcome and manifest enthusiasm of th people were remarked upon with great pleasure by the distinguished visitors of the party. Many houses were illuminated, flags displayed and rockets brilliantly piercing the darkness above carried in advance the news of the approach of the senator to his home.

In the vicinity of Fairbanks' home fully 20,000 people were awaiting the party. Cheer followed cheer as the senator and Mrs. Fairbanks entered their door, where a large platform profusely decorated had been erected. Mayor Holtman was the first to express to the senator the pride of his neighbors and their sincere welcome. This he did in a brief speech. Senator Beveridge followed. He said:

"The law of compensation is universal and no honor comes to man without corresponding duties. Into the arduous work to which my eminent colleague is called he will have the inspiration of the hearty good wishes of every man and woman in Indianapolis; and we on our part have the sure knowledge that in all he will speak and work for what he believs to be the best of the republic. And in this he will be merely a type of American, because all of us of every party and of every creed are hoping and working in our various ways to make and keep this nation the noblest of all the nations of the earth."

Speeches were also made by John W. Kern and John L. Griffiths. There was another enthusiastic demonstration that lasted several minutes when Senator Fairbanks came forward to express his appreciation of the welcome. He said:

"Your warm and enthusiastic welcome almost overwhelms me. I am too poor in words to express to you the gratitude I feel for this kindly greeting. It is immeasurable. I am not insensible to the high honor which the Republican national convention at Chicago has conferred. But above and beyond that, I value the neighborly respect and friendly regard which I have so long enjoyed here and which you manifest so generously tonight.

"This city is very dear to us all. We have for it a profound affection. Most of what we have been and what we are and what we expect to be is centered here. Its shame is our shame; its honor our glory. It is home, and there is no sweeter, better word than this in all the vast vocabulary of men.

"Our city has contributed many who have taken a conspicuous place in American history. We are joint inheritors of the honor they have brought to it. There was Thomas A. Hendricks, chosen by the American people for the vice presidency; Joseph E. McDonald, an able United States senator, and William H. English, once a candidate for the second office in the gift of his country—men, men of great ability and high purpose, and we honor their memories irrespective of our political beliefs.

"In the perilous hours of our country Oliver P. Morton, the Cromwell of American politics, was a mighty tower of strength. Walter Q. Gresham rendered conspicuous military and civic service and left us a spotless name. In the silent city of the dead yonder Gen. Benjamin Harrison sleeps. He wrote a high record of intelligent, conservative patriotism to the republic.

"We are proud of our city and state and beyond that we are proud of our citizenship. Here labor and capital, those two mighty forces in our upbuilding, find a fruitful field of employment and here their mutual rights are well respected.

"We value and hold fast to those virtues of the fireside which are the real strength of the republic. Our people are characterized by plain living and high thinking.

"My friends, we have much to be thankful for. About us are the ample rewards of honest industry and the rich fruits of peace. Let us seek to promote good laws, wise administration and make ourselves secure in the enjoyment of that contentment which comes from the observance and orderly enforcement of law."

For an hour and more following the speeches people thronged past and sohok hands with both the senator and Mrs. Fairbanks, Chairman Cortelyou and Secretary Payne also being introduced.

Lafayette, Ind., June 25.—Lafayette gave an enthusiastic welcome to Senator Fairbanks this evening, greeting the vice presidential nominee with shrieks of whistles, boom of cannon and ringing of bells. Three car loads of people from the soldiers' home, accompanied by a drum corps, were conspicuous at the station. Fairbanks made a brief speech, thanking them for their welcome.

Templeton, Ind., June 25.—The crowd that greeted Fairbanks this afternoon was enthusiastic. Every utterance of the vice presidential candidate was cheered. A stop of only five minutes was made and after the speaker had concluded his talk the train went on to Indianapolis.

WIFE MEETS SAD FATE.

Lincoln, June 25.—Repenting that he compelled his wife and babe to leave home three months ago, John King, a mechanic of Lincoln, followed his wandering family hundreds of miles to find at Worthington, Ky., yesterday that his wife died there several days ago and was buried in the potter's field, while all traces of the child are lost.

King, disconsolate and thoroughly repentant, blames himself for the tragedy. Shortly after he forced his wife from their home, King wrote letters addressed to her at Cannelton, Ind., his former home. The missives were returned unopened, and the husband finally went to Cannelton. His arrival there was greeted with the information that his wife and child had departed for Hawesville, Ky., several weeks before.

At Hawesville King was told that his wife had gone to Worthington. He was told by the police there of his wife's sickness, death and funeral. No one in Wortington knows anything of the missing child.

CONDITION OF CANNON

Not Regarded as Serious—Will Sail for Europe in July.

Danville, Ill., June 25.—"Just a slight touch of malaria, that's all, said Speaker Cannon to day when he was saked concerning his health. "I contracted it down at Springfield during the state convention when the air was bad, hours irregular, and food improperly cooked on account of big demands made on hotels.

"I felt better after returning home and taking some medicine, but it returned during the Chicago convention, coupled with a touch of bronchial trouble. It is nothing serious, though.

"I expect to take a sea voyage about July 9, and the sea air will no doubt bring me around again.

"I may remain on the other side, or may return on the same steamer. I expect to return about July 30, and get into the campaign.

"Oh, yes, I expect to make some speeches. I can't tell just where at present."

The speaker's condition did not seem serious from outward appearances, and his spirits were good, but at the same time his daughter and physician will take no chances with malaria and have determined upon a systematic attack on the fever and it is hoped will soon restore the speaker to his usual rugged health.

A Struggle for Supremacy Between Chicago and Princeton Universities—The Winners of Various Events at the Meet.

St. Louis, June 25.—The Olympic national collegiate athletic championship held to day under the auspices of the world's fair Olympic games early developed into a struggle for supremacy between Chicago and Princeton universities. Chicago won the championship and Walter B. Ievens silver trophy with a total of 70 points, defeating Princeton by 10 points. Scores for the contestants were as follows: Missouri Agricultural college, 6; University of Illinois, 6; Colgate college, 5; Leland Stanford university, 4. Contestants from the following colleges were entered, but did not finish among the first four: South Dakota, Amherst, Christian Brothers' college of St. Louis, Missouri university.

While no records were broken, competition in every event was unusually keen and the result of the meet was in doubt until the last two events had been decided. The pole vault was especially interesting, as Dole, the present world's champion, was pitted against Harry Moore, of Princeton, in the final jumps. They could not negotiate the bar at 12 feet after the legal number of trials, and it was decided to split the points awarded to first and second positions, giving the third place to Clark of Chicago. Princeton had counted upon winning this event and the result had a decided effect upon the outcome of the meet. The winners:

100-yard dash—B. S. Rice, Chicago; :10.

880-yard run—L. M. Adsit, Princeton; 2:00 3-5.

Recently Archbishop Ireland announced that a new cathedral to cost several millions was to be erected and St. Joseph parish would be merged with the cathedral, but Harrison would not be pastor of the new cathedral. Because of the opposition of the parishioners to this plan Harrison was transferred to Minneapolis and refusing to go was silenced. An appeal to Rome followed.

RUSSIA'S NAVY GROWS SMALLER

JAPS DESTOY MORE WARSHIPS

Fleet at Port Arthur Attempts to Escape but Is Discovered by Admiral Togo and Attack Follows—Battle Imminent.

Tokio, June 25.—Admiral Togo reports on Thursday last his patrol boat discovered the battleship Peresviet and seven other vessels accompanied by nine torpedo boat destroyers near the entrance of Port Arthur harbor. They warned him wirelessly and he immediately advanced with his entire fleet except those engaged upon special duty. The admiral then discovered the Russian fleet, which consisted of six battleships, five cruisers and fourteen destroyers, evidently planned to dash southward by sundown. The Russians stopped outside the entrance to the harbor. After nightfall a fleet of Japanese torpedo boat destroyers resolutely attacked the Russian ships and succeeded in torpedoing and sinking a battleship of the Peresviet type and disabled the battleship Revastopol. A cruiser of the Diana type was observed being towed into the harbor Friday morning. It is evident she had sustained serious damage. The Japanese ships sustained little damage. The torpedo boat destroyer Shirakumo was hit by a shell which fell in the cabin and had three men killed and three wounded. The Chidori, a vessel of the same class, was hit behind the engine room, but no casualties resulted therefrom. Two torpedo boats were slightly damaged.

APPROACHING BATTLE.

Liao Yang, June 25.—The armies of Oku and Kuroki, aggregating at least six divisions, are confronted by a huge force under Kuropatkin. The tension here is most acute at the approach of the most important battle of the war, in which three times the number of troops engaged Kiu Lien Cheng, Kin Chou and Vafangow will take part. The proximity of the rainy season makes the battle unavoidable.

St. Petersburg, June 25.—To day has been full of rumors and intense excitement, but this was relieved somewhat this evening by the issue of a special edition of the Official Messenger, containing some details of the fighting around Kaiping and other movements in the neighborhood of Saimatsze, already published by the Associated Press. Operations in the northeast indicate that Kuropatkin is keeping his force on the extreme left flank and in the rear of the enemy and is capable of dealing with any threatening move that Kuroki may attempt in that direction. There is nothing in official dispatches to indicate any startling developments regarding the Japanese movement northt of Kaiping, though the enemy is undoubtedly advancing slowly.

WAR REPORTS.

London, June 25.—The Japanese legation this afternoon received a Tokio dispatch announcing a detachment of the Taku Shan army surprised and routed a squadron of Russian cavalry ten miles northwest of San Tuckow at dawn Thursday; also occupied the heights north thereof, expelling Russians, who left sixty dead on the field.

The Japanese afterward indulged in mutilations."

It is expected his selection will be ratified when the national committee gathers next week in St. Louis.

Senator Bailey of Texas has been mentioned for permanent chairman, but it is believed to be unlikely both presiding officers will be chosen from the south.

THE WORLD'S FAIR HANDICAP

GREAT RACE IS WON BY COLONIAL GIRL

Hermis Comes in Second and Moharib Third—Time 2:09¼—Irish Lad Won the Advance Stakes.

St. Louis, June 25.—Colonial Girl, by Meddler-Springtide, five years old, owned by Otto Stifle, of St. Louis, won the World's Fair handicap at the fair grounds to day. The eastern champion, Hermis, was second, three lengths back; Moharib, six lengths behind him. Colonial Girl won the race very easily. Time, 2:09¼.

The World's Fair handicap was at a mile and a quarter and worth $41,500 to the winner. The track was about six seconds slow. After a delay of seven minutes at the post the field got away, Hermis first, fololwed closely by Gold Heels, Moharib and Colonial Girl. Redfren on Hermis immediately shot his mount to the outside, where the going was better, followed closely by Gold Heels and Moharib. Passing the stand the first time Hermis was leading by four lengths, Colonial Girl a length ahead of Moharib and Gold Heels. The others were running well bunched behind the leaders. Taking up the long run down the back stretch Hermis showed the way, leading by six lengths, Colonial Girl a length ahead of Moharib. Hermis carried the field to the half in :50¼, a terrific pace for a slow track. Colonial Girl still hung on, running well within herself. Moharib was third, Sambo fourth. At the three-quarter pole Hermis seemed to have the race at his mercy, but Booker, noticing the eastern horse falter and tiring rapidly, sent Colonial Girl after him. Redfern felt his mount tire under him and struck him twice with the whip as the St. Louis horse ran up alongside him. Hermis shot out into the lead again, but it was adying effort, Colonial Girl surely and speedily overhauling him. Before the turn for home was made the Girl, beautifully ridden by Booker, overhauled Hermis and was going away. Fisher on Moharib then made his movement. His mount responded gamely, but was not good enough to get the fast tiring Hermis. The horses passed the wire with Colonial Girl under wraps three lengths to the good; Hermis, tiring at every jump, second, six lengths ahead of Moharib, with the rest of the field beaten off. After the race Otto Stifel presented Jockey Booker with $10,000.

The freight on which Gwynn runs was doing some work at Tallula, and it seems that he attempted to make a coupling while holding to the rear of a car. In some manner his foot was caught between the bumpers and terribly crushed.

Cut a Whale In Two.

When near Chemulpo, the lookout on the Japanese cruiser Takachiho saw a large whale 100 feet long taking the air on the surface of the sea. Thinking the whale would move away, the cruiser kept on her course, with the result that the huge creature was cut in two by the keel of the warship, which was doing eighteen knots an hour. The sea for hundreds of yards round became red with the blood of the whale, and the warship steamed for over a mile in the encrimsoned stream.

The Intense Cold In Tibet.

The intense cold found at the high elevations over which the British troops lately marched into Tibet nearly disabled the Maxims and rifles. The officers of the guns had to clear the locks of the Maxims of oil and carry them in their breast pockets to keep them warm and dry, and the men took their rifles to bed with them. Otherwise the oil would freeze into a clogging mess, which would cause misfires. The water jackets of the Maxims became a source of danger, and even a mixture of one-quarter rum did not prevent the water from freezing.

A Centenarian's Methods.

In an autograph letter Senator Wark, the centenarian lawmaker of Canada, assigns his longevity to plain food and regular habits. He says he has been accustomed to eat oatmeal porridge and milk for breakfast and still makes it the principal part of his morning meal, followed by a single cup of black tea and a slice of bread. A piece of fowl or fish, with a cup of tea, forms his midday meal. In the evening he has a cup of tea and a slice of bread. He retires regularly at 10 o'clock and rises at 7:30.

HOW TO RESTORE HEALTH.

The Secret of Restoring Health Lies in Replacing the Same Substances to the Body That Have Been Wasted

By disease, overwork, worry, exposure or abuse. When you are run down, getting thin, weak, and tire on the slightest exertion, the life and strength of your blood are wearing out. When you grow irritable, melancholy and nervous your nerve force is decaying and vitality is becoming low. Disease acts on those whose blood is watery, impoverished or impure, and never affects persons who have plenty of rich and pure blood. Dr. Chase's Blood and Nerve Food supplies what is lacking in the blood and nerve force. It contains everything that makes new and rich blood and perfect nerves, in fact, it is blood itself—the very essence of nerve force, making it the grandest of all tonics for the sick, convalescent and overworked. It restores vim, vigor and vitality to aged and worn out people, and imparts a glow of health to pale and sallow people. Price 50 cents, five boxes $2.00. The Dr. Chase Co., Philadelphia, Pa. DEATH MYSTERY

Surrounds Man Found Dead on Chicago and Alton Coach in Springfield.

Springfield, June 25.—The mystery of the unidentified body found on the top of a mail car on the Alton passenger train early last Tuesday morning continues to deepen. The coroner's jury have dismissed the case with the observation that they do not know the cause of his death and the authorities share the general opinion that he met his death by striking a bridge or signal arm of some projection between Bloomington and this city.

Such a solution of the mystery may be correct, but it is not probable, for it appears at once that he must have been standing on top of the coach. There is no projection over the tracks low enough to catch a man sitting on a car, and it is very doubtful if there is any that would catch a man standing. And admitting, there is the impact that would have been of such force that he would have been hurled to the ground. Railroad men say that invariably a man who is hit by an overhead obstruction is thrown to the ground. South of Bloomington, between there and this city, there are three obstructions over the track, two wagon bridges just below Bloomington, and the coal track at the iron works in Ridgely. Passenger trains pass all of these bridges at a high rate of speed and ahd he been standing on the car he would have been hurled off, and had he been standing on the car he no matter if it is believed.

There is a theory that he was thrown over a bridge in Bloomington onto the car, but that don't solve it, for the front end of a passenger train of this length while standing at the Bloomington station is far south of the bridge at that depot. The better theory is that he and a companion were riding in this car and they quarrelled and a fight took place and this man was killed. The other escaped.

His identify remains unsolved. A telegram came yesterday afternoon from Dwight chief of police, saying that no people of the name of French lived there. His telegrams up to that time stated that such a man as C. L. French had lived there.

One feature that has not been written here relates to the call of two women to look at the dead man. They were unknown and have not been seen since. They refused to give their names or addresses. One of them said she lived in Chicago and after looking at the body said she had seen him at a certain bowling alley in Cottage Grove avenue, and that he lived at a certain other address and was known as Ed Finch. These addresses were turned over to the coroner and will be investigated.

The body was found Tuesday morning. Early in the afternoon of that day these two women, one of whom admitted she lived in Chicago, called to see the body Up to that time no publication of a newspaper had been made with an account of the find and the story had not had general circulation. Yet there are two unknown women, one a resident of Chicago, who learn of the discovery and hasten to view the corpse.

The mystery of this man's death may yet prove a celebrated case.

Coroner Baer still holds to the theory that the man was killed by being struck in going under a bridge and he does not believe it possible that he could have been hit by any one in the manner in which the wound is inflicted. He believes that the man was struck just as the train was going out of Chicago. This seems evident from the fact that the side of his face that was turned up was completely covered with cinders and smut, showing that the body had lain in that position for some time. He believed that the man was struck and knocked senseless, but lived until within a few miles of Springfield.

Since receiving the telegram stating that the man was not from Dwight Coroner Baer has learned that the first telegram in relation to C. L. French of that place referred to a railroad man of that name whose child was buried yesterday. Mr. Baer is now making every effort to get some clue from Chicago as to who the man is. He believes that the man's hat, which was missing when he was found, will be picked up somewhere in the suburbs of Chicago.

We don't propose to allow summer dullness to get a hold on our business. We're marking Clearing Sale Prices on large quantities of goods much earlier than ever before. The rainy, backward spring has hurt the sale of early summer merchandise and we have decided to sacrifice our profits in order to reduce the stock in short order.

Siamese English.

According to the Bangkok Times, the proprietors of a Siamese newspaper have distributed handbills containing the following notice: "The news of English, oh crumbs, we tell the latest. Writ in perfectly style and most earliest. Do a murder git commit, we hear of and tell it. Do a mighty chief die, oh crumbs, we publish it, and in borders of sombre. Staff has each one been colleged and write, oh crumbs, like the Kippling and the Dickens. We circle every town and extortionate not for advertisement. Buy it, oh crumbs. Buy it. Tell each of you its greatness for good. Oh crumbs. Ready on Friday. Number first."

On His Feet.

When Daniel Sully, the cotton king of a few weeks, was walking down Fifth avenue the other afternoon he was accosted by a business acquaintance with the remark, "Well, Sully, how goes things by this time?" "Oh, I'm on my feet again," answered Sully cheerfully. "What! So soon?" replied his friend incredulously. "Yes; I've sold my horses," replied Sully.

Lillian Russell's Age.

"Exactly how old are you, anyway?" asked a friend of Lillian Russell. "I have a friend," replied the actress with apparent irrelevance, "who was born in midocean on an ocean steamer. After she and her mother had landed, the steamer, on its return trip, blew up. So, practically, she had no birthplace. My age is like that," she added, after a pause.

Colored Tailors In Washington.

One of the best tailors in Washington is a colored man, who is employed by one of the largest establishments in the national capital. He is an expert in uniforms and makes big money. There are also two firms of colored merchant tailors in Washington, who have a large and growing trade and prosper accordingly.—Sartorial Art Journal.

BACK TO ENGLAND.

After a delightful visit of six weeks with the family of Robert T. Cassell, of this city, Fred B. Coulson, wife and daughter, Gladys, have started toward their home in Grimsby, England. As stated at the time of their arrival Mr. Coulson is a cousin of Mrs. Cassell and when Robert and his family made the tour of Europe a few years ago, since they were well entertained by the Coulson family at the elegant home of the latter in the handsome town of Grimsby, and now they have been enjoying United States hospitality in return. They left impressed with the greatness and attractions of our noble country and could easily have been induced to make it the place of their abode, had it been practicable. They were especially fortunate in having such splendid entertainers as Mr. Cassell and his estimable family, for nothing was left undone which could add to their comfort and happiness. They have every reason to be pleased with their experience in Yankee land and they doubtless are. Mr. Coulson is a prominent man in Grimsby and will take back with him many pleasant impressions of his visit abroad, and will tell his friends and neighbors of the magnitude of the new nation. The travelers saw many of the larger places and their list will include New York, Washington,, St. Louis, Niagara Falls, Buffalo and several others.

SHOT AND MISSED.

A report came to the Journal Saturday of a shooting affair which fortunately or unfortunately, had no perceptible results. Mr. Miller, a school teacher in Yatesville district and living on the Osborne place east of Jordanville, was alone in the house Friday night, his family having gone away, and an intruder supposed the head of the family absent also. During the night Mr. Miller heard some one trying to get into the house through a window and shot at the robber three times, but apparently missed every time. He went out, but failed to find any trace of the thief, except a straw hat, which had a bullet hole through it. Next time he will try to aim better.

DO NOT EXERCISE CARE.

Complaint has been made several times to the Journal of the disregard owners of automobiles have for the law requiring care on their part regarding horses which appear to be afraid of the strange vehicles. One complainant says the law explicitly requires managers of automobiles to stop their machines if they see a horse at all likely to be frightened by them and this is frequently not done. For a time autos will be strange just as electric street cars were at first, and owners of them should be careful not to frighten horses more than is avoidable.

BERLIN COAL MINE.

The directors of the new mine at Berlin and the officers of the Wabash railroad are trying to reach an agreement for the construction of a long switch from the main line to the site of the mine. The shaft has just been sunk and the company will soon be ready to hoist coal, but it is some distance from a railroad and the only solution is the construction of a long spur from the Wabash. It is thought that the business will justify the building of the spur, though it will be expensive. At present coal is being raised to supply the wagon trade. The mine was closed down last week to enable the construction of an engine room, work on which will commence at once.

DYER FOR GOVERNOR.

Col. D. Pat Dyer, United States district attorney, and a noted criminal lawyer, is being boomed for the Republican nomination for governor of Missouri. At a conference of the Missouri delegation at the recent Republican national convention, it is said, the nomination of Dyer was agreed upon by all factions. The minority was so badly defeated in the conference that, apparently, the fight for control in Missouri is practically ended.

AS A DELEGATE.

Winston Churchill, author of "The Crisis," appeared in Chicago last week as a delegate from New Hampshire to the Republican national convention. The youthful appearing author of the "largest selling book" attracted considerable attention as he mingled with the various state delegation in company with the venerable Republicans. He took an active interest in the nomination of the leaders of the ticket, this being his first experience in politics.

PITTSFIELD PASTOR CALLED.

Springfield, June 25.—The board of directors of the West Side Christian church have issued a call to Rev. F. M. Rogers, of the Christian church at Pittsfield, to take the pastorate of the West Side church. It is probable that he will accept. The appointment which has been offered Rev. Mr. Rogers was made vacant by the resignation of Rev. J. E. Lynn, to take the pastorate of a church in Ohio.

A rather peculiar fact has been noticed since the name of Rev. F. M. Rogers has been suggested for the pastorate of the West Side church. If he accepts the pastorate there will be four prominent pastors of churches in the city named Rogers. They will be Rev. Euclid B. Rogers, of the Central Baptist church; Rev. J. B. Rogers, of the South Seventh Street Baptist church; Rev. J. E. Rogers, of the Third Presbyterian church, and Rev. F. M. Rogers, of the West Side Christian church.

THE CROPS.

While the season is quite backward, farmers generally expect to harvest the usual crop this year. The rain has been plentiful and should it continue, now that the wheat and oats are beginning to head out, there might be considerable damage from rust. In many of the southern counties the wheat harvest has already begun and farmers in this vicinity will soon begin to lay by the golden grain.

The weather has been fine for corn and while it is not as far advanced as it is many seasons, it looks well and in many fields farmers are plowing for the next to last time.

The rain Friday was not general, and while a great many fields were too wet to permit work a large number were able to go ahead with their spring plowing in the afternoon. In some localities north and southeast the rain was even heavier than it was here.

Miss Mary Hughes, who has been quite seriously ill, was reported much better yesterday.

SUPREME COURT JUSTICE MARRIED

Bordentown, N. J., June 25. Mrs. Louise E. Pitney, of Cross Wicks, and Henry Brown, a clerk of the supreme court of the United States, were married to day.

MATRIMONIAL

M'DOUGAL-MAUGHMER.

Nampa (Idaho) Leader: A brilliant event to day was the marriage of Miss Clara McDougal and Carl Maughmer, which took place at the Episcopal church at high noon. Archdeacon Jennings was the officiating clergyman, reading the impressive ceremony in the presence of a large number of friends of the bride and groom. The church decorations consisted entirely of roses, lending great beauty and fragrance to the occasion. Mrs. M. A. Swift, an old friend of Miss McDougal, was the organist and the bridal party marched in to the inspiring strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march. The procession was headed by Frank Jenkinson and Dr. Kellogg, ushers, followed by Miss Brace and Miss Decker, bridesmaids; Miss Noble, of Boise, maid of honor, and then came the bride, who was received at the altar by the groom and his best man, F. A. Hagelin. The bridal couple stood under a beautiful canopy of white roses during the ceremony and the words which united them were spoken to the soft and lovely strains of "Thine Own." E. R. Brace had the honor of giving away the bride. She was beautifully gowned in white silk mulle, made en traine and elaborately trimmed with point de neige lace, and her tulle veil was secured by a spray of bridal flowers. She carried white bride's roses. The bridesmaids, Miss Brace and Miss Decker, were charmingly gowned in white organdie, made slightly en traine; they wore white picture hats and carried pink bridesmaid roses. The maid of honor, Miss Noble, looked lovely in a pink and white organdie gown, picture hat and carried pink roses.

After the ceremony the wedding party marched out to the strains of Lohengrin, entered carriages and were driven to the residence of Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Brace, whose guest the bride has been, where a delightful wedding breakfast was served. The long table was beautifully decorated with roses, plate glass in the center and festoons of roses hanging from the ceiling. The bride's cake was decorated with roses and at each plate was placed small dream cakes neatly wrapped. The place cards were hand painted monograms with old shoes cleverly painted on the corners. Covers were laid for fourteen, which included the bridal party and Archdeacon and Mrs. Jennings.

The newly married couple left in the evening for a month's tour. They will visit Colorado Springs, Denver, Jacksonville, Ill., and St. Louis before returning.

Mr. Maughmer is Nampa's city engineer and Miss McDougall formerly taught in our public schools. They were the recipients of a large number of handsome wedding presents.

The bride is the eldest daughter of C. E. McDougall, of this city.

QUINN-PARK.

Ark Quinn, of Mt. Sterling, and Miss Rose Park, of Cooperstown, were married Saturday afternoon by Rev. A. L. T. Ewert at the Centenary church parsonage, in the presence of witnesses only.

The groom is a farmer and both he and his wife are said to be very estimable young people.

Ant Proof Trunks.

The trunk maker was showing his wares. He pointed to a long, low, glistening black trunk and said:

"That looks almost burglar proof, doesn't it? Well, if it isn't that it's red ant proof. It's covered with sheet steel, and when it is closed it is almost as tight as a safe. We are making that trunk for the army officers in the Philippines, and we've just sold forty-five to this year's class at West Point. This trunk, and I mean by that a trunk clad top, bottom and sides with sheet steel, is the only kind of trunk which defies the red ant of the Philippines. The strong little creature with its powerful mandibles can eat its way through an ordinary wood and canvas or sole leather trunk, and once it is on the inside it eats everything it finds. I suppose now the red ants will have to equip themselves with jimmies."—New York Post.

Where the Chinese Are.

According to Export, a German geographical paper, there are 7,642,650 Chinese living out of China—as many as the total population of Sweden and Norway.

America has comparatively few of them, only 272,829, a few less than the little British island of Hongkong alone boasts. Formosa has 2,600,000, but that used to be Chinese, and they simply haven't moved. Siam is the greatest goal of actual emigration, having 2,500,000 Chinese, who have absorbed pretty much all the active trade of the country.

In the Malay peninsula, also, 985,000 Chinese have nearly monopolized trade under British rule. The Sunda isles have 600,000. The Philippines, where the Chinese are already a problem, have only 80,000 of them.

Newbro's Herpicide

VACATION TIME. Vacation time should bring rest, recreation and comfort; and comfort of the solid and pleasing variety means no high collar, no stiff hat and no—itching scalp. It is for this last discomfort that Newbro's Herpicide becomes a summer necessity, as it stops itching of the scalp and prickly heat almost instantly. Take Herpicide with you on your vacation.

SCALP WARNING. Itching of the scalp is not so much a punishment for past neglect as it is a warning for the future. It shows, almost conclusively, that the vinelike, microbic growth that causes dandruff, itching scalp and falling hair has entered the Sebaceous glands and unless this growth is stopped and kept out of the scalp, baldness will follow.

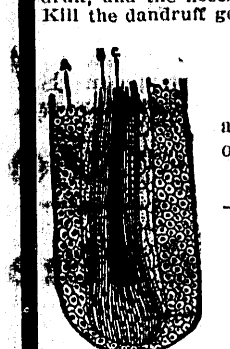
IT IS CONTAGIOUS. It was Professor Unna (ask your doctor about him) who first pointed out that the true cause of hair loss is a germ or microbe that lodges in the scalp where it causes dandruff. Being of microbic origin, the disease is necessarily contagious, but Dr. Sabouraud has recently called attention to the highly contagious nature of dandruff, and the necessity of constant watchfulness to avoid it. Kill the dandruff germ with Herpicide.

UNSTERLIZED PUBLIC HAIR BRUSHES, says Dr. A. Cartaz, are to blame for most of the baldness that is prevalent to day. He further states that, "baldness begins in the young." By this he means that the germ that causes the disease is planted in the scalp of young men and that sometimes years elapse before the destruction is complete.

WILL NOT GROW HAIR. Newbro's Herpicide is a "Hair Saver"; it will not grow hair—nature does this—but by destroying the enemies of hair health, it enables the hair to grow as nature intended—except in chronic baldness. Save your hair with Herpicide. Wonderful results follow its use.

HOT WEATHER TROUBLES. During hot weather the minute sudatory glands of the scalp are called upon to perform an extra amount of labor. The perspiration that exudes in increased quantities must be handled promptly, as it carries out poisonous and refuse matter that would otherwise clog up the pores of the scalp. Incomplete elimination of refuse matter produces a hot and feverish condition of the scalp, familiarly known as prickly heat, for which Herpicide gives immediate relief. Ladies will find Herpicide indispensible. It contains no grease, will not stain or dye. It is an exquisite hair dressing that COOLS, COMFORTS and DELIGHTS.

Reasons for Herpicide's Popularity.



A Healthy Hair.

MATHENY & LLOYD.

(By Associated Press.)

Chicago, June 25.—Wheat—Higher cables, decreased shipments from Austria, rains in sections southwest combined to create strong opening, September being up ¼@⅝c at 80⅝@81c. Trading was light the early part of the session, more from the scarcity of offerings than any lack of demand. Shorts and commission houses were principal bidders. Selling was largely by scalpers. Late bull factors were reports of great damage to wheat in Caucasia and report of a crop expert stating there was small likelihood of any increased receipts from the southwest. September closed 1c higher, Liverpool ½@¾d higher. At the seaboard ten boat loads were taken.

Corn—Heavy selling of July by elevator interests caused weakness. Ideal weather conditions and break in cash values were bear factors. Opening was firm on higher cables and smaller receipts than estimated. On advance liberal offerings with little demand started prices downward. September closed ⅛@¼c lower, July down ½c, Liverpool unchanged to ½d higher. At the coast four boat loads were taken.

Oats—Fluctuations in wheat and corn had little effect, prices holding steady within small range. Owing to scarcity of offerings trading was extremely light. The close showed ⅛c loss for July, unchanged for others.

LIVESTOCK.

Cattle and sheep were scarce to day and unchanged. Both averaged 25c lower this week, while spring lambs are off $1.00@1.50 owing to greatly increased receipts. Hogs are in good demand at firm prices, best selling at $5.45, or 25c higher than a week ago. Prices quoted to day:

Cattle—Good to prime steers, $5.50@6.50; poor to medium, $4.50@5.50; stockers, $2.50@4.50; cows, $1.50@4.25; Texans, $3.25@3.65.

Hogs—Mixed and butchers', $5.20@5.40; good to choice heavy, $5.35@5.45; rough heavy, $5.15@5.30; light, $5.20@5.35; bulk of sales, $5.25@5.35.

FINANCIAL MARKET.

New York, June 25.—The stock market made some stand early to day against the reactionary tendency of yesterday, but yielded at the close and showed small net losses on the day. The result is to leave the week's changes quite small. Dealings to day were indifferent to the point of lifelessness. Closing quotations:

Money on call nominal; no loans. Time loans easy; sixty days and ninety days at 1¾@2 per cent; six months at 3.

Smoked Beef on Toast.

A good recipe for the chafing dish is the following: Four ounces of smoked beef, one cup of tomato juice, one-third cup of grated cheese, two tablespoonfuls of melted butter and two eggs, well beaten. Chop or break very fine the beef, add to it the tomato juice. When very hot, add cheese. Make a thin paste of one teaspoonful of flour and a little water. Add this and the eggs the last thing. Cook just long enough to make a creamy substance. Serve on hot buttered toast.

IF YOU HAVE DYSPEPSIA READ THIS.

The old way of taking pepsin, bismuth, etc., to cure dyspepsia is all wrong. They may be put up in tablets or in liquids, the result is just the same. The object is to create artificial digestion, but this does not make a cure. Stop taking the pepsin, etc., and have your dyspepsia or indigestion back again. People use cocaine or opium for nervious troubles and sick headache, it does not cure Stop taking the drug and the pain and distress return. The only Common Sense Method is to drive out of the system the cause of dyspepsia and sick headache by cleaning the stomach and bowels and at the same time using a medicine that will act upon the liver. This forces through the glands of the stomach the digestive fluid that nature intended. In this way you cure dyspepsia. The medicine that cures dyspepsia by this method is called Dr. Gunn's Improved iver Pills. Druggists sell these pills at 25c a box. It only takes one pill for a dose. For sale by Lee P. Allcott.

TWO BLIND NAGS

Driven by Drunken Man on West College Avenue Cause Commotion Saturday Evening.

A disgusting example of debauchery with its usual attending circumstances, was witnessed Saturday evening by many residents on West College avenue near Diamond street. A man tanked so full he could hardly hold his seat in the wagon in which he was riding was endeavoring to drive west on the avenue with two blind horses hitched to a wagon. He was too full to see enough of the avenue to keep his horses in the street and in their blindness they staggered over the curbing, stumbled onto the boulevards and when some one was kind enough to assist him get his horses back in the street it would only be a short distance until they were stumbling over the curbing again.

One buggy hitched along the street was nearly wrecked by the careless driving. When he reached Diamond street and his horses again got up onto the boulevard some men who were passing got him again into the street and telephoned for the police. Before their arrival a friend of the drunken man happened along and seeing the predicament of the old gentleman, whom he said lived west of the city, climbed into the wagon and said that he would see that he got safely home. The condition of the man was revolting in the extreme and in his attempt to drive two blind horses he made it not only dangerous for himself and team, but for traffic in general along the street.

OVERLAND TRIP

William Hook Jr. Learned of His Father's Death in Springfield—Came Here by Rail.

William Hook, Jr., and chaffeur and Mr. and Mrs. Fanning, of Chicago, arrived in the city Saturday on the 1:43 Wabash train. The party came as far as Springfield overland in a Columbia auto car. Mr. Hook had not heard of his father's death, which occurred at Philadelphia, and it was only by accident that the sad news was communicated to him in Springfield. The party were enroute from Chicago to this city and speeded through the capital city at a very rapid rate. They attracted a great deal of attention as they went through the city and a policeman who had been told to be on the lookout telephoned to the club house at the Springfield golf grounds, where it was learned that the party had stopped for lunch and managed to reach them just as they were about to leave. Mr. Hook at once abandoned the overland trip and the party took the Wabash train for this city. Mr. Fanning will return to Springfield Monday and bring the auto car here.

AT C. E. CONVENTION.

One of the most noted and interesting speakers and workers at summer Chautauquas and religious conventions in this country is Miss E. Stafford Miller, of Australia. She is a lady of unusual ability as a speaker and is in constant demand for such meetings all over the United States during her stay in this country.

Becoming interested in the condition of the miners of Australia, she has consecrated her life to missionary work amongst them, and to better fit herself for this great work is in this country to study our methods of work and our institutions.

At the state Christian Endeavor convention to be held in Springfield July 7-10, she is to lead the quiet hour services, the great mass meeting of men on Sunday afternoon in the armory and the closing consecration service, the most impressive service of all.

NO SETTLEMENT.

Springfield, June 25.—Unable to reach any agreement with Attorney General Hamlin, as to the dismissal of the suits against the head officers of the Loyal Americans, the joint conference of the local members and the supreme executive council of the order has adjourned and there is no change in the situation. The council has adjourned without calling a meeting of the national congress of the order on July 12, as was demanded by the local lodges, and this leaves the burden upon the lodges to call a meeting themselves if they follow out the original advice of their counsel, Lieutenant Governor Northcott.

SUED BY HIS DOCTOR.

"A doctor has sued me for $12.50, which I claimed was excessive for a case of cholera morbus," says R. White, of Coachella, Cal. "At the trial he praised his medical skill and medicine. I asked him if it was not Chamberlain's Colice, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy he used, as I had good reason to believe it was, and he would not say under oath that it was not." No doctor could use a better remedy than this in a case of cholera morbus, it never fails. Sold by all leading druggists.

DEATH RECORD

FRANK.

Leo Frank, proprietor of Frank's dry goods store, passed away at his home on North Church street Saturday evening at 7:30 o'clock, at the age of 58 years. He had been ailing for the past three months, but his condition was not considered sufficiently serious to cause alarm until Saturday morning, when he took a sudden change for the worse. The immediate cause of death was diabetic coma.

Deceased was born in Germany Sept. 5, 1846. He resided in his native country until he attained his majority, when he came to America. After several years spent in Alabama and other southern states he came to Illinois about thirty years ago and was for a long time engaged in business in Chicago. From the latter city he came to Jacksonville and opened a dry goods store in the Hockenhull building on the east side of the square, in September of 1901. Good business management marked the enterprise as a success from the start.

Mr. Frank was married in 1872 to Miss Eliza Fernberg at Mendota, Ill. To this union were born two children, Louis and Carrie, who, together with their mother, survive.

During his residence in this city Mr. Frank, by his honesty and square dealing, as well as by his genial disposition and affable manners, gained many warm friends who will sincerely mourn his death. The bereaved family will have the sincere sympathy of the community in their loss.

The remains will be taken to Chicago to night and interment will be made in Rose Hill cemetery in that city Monday afternoon.

BALLARD.

J. M. Ballard died at 6:30 o'clock Friday evening at his home in Whitehall. He was about 52 years of age and a respected citizen of his community. He is survived by his wife.
